

4TH CONNECTING CIVIL SOCIETIES OF ASIA AND EUROPE:
Changing Challenges, New Ideas

*An official side-event of the ASEM8 Summit
2-3 October 2010, Brussels (Belgium)*

WORKSHOP AGENDA

THE ROLE OF YOUTH IN PUBLIC HEALTH PROMOTION: NEW IDEAS, YOUNG IDEAS

Co-organising institutions

Asia-Europe Foundation University Alumni Network (ASEFUAN)
Prospex

Agenda

Day 1 - Saturday 2 October

TIME	AGENDA
14:00 - 14:15	Introduction of participants
14:15 - 14:30	Introduction of workshop, expectations, modalities, outcomes
14:30 - 14:45	Introduction: ASEF Network for Public Health Recommendations from the 16th ASEF University Participants  - What is ASEF Network for Public Health Network? ✓ What are the objectives of the Network? ✓ What added-value does the Network bring to public health in Asia and Europe, especially for the youth?  Presenter Ms. Sunkyoung Lee, Project Executive, ASEF Network for Public Health
14:45 - 15:30	Discussion of 16th ASEF University Policy Recommendations on Public Health - What are the main outcomes and policy recommendations that came out from the 16 th ASEF University on ‘Public Health and Vulnerable Groups: Access to Quality Health Care Services’? - What can be done to strengthen and support the recommendations?  Presenters Mr. Liew Yen Yee, AU16 Alumnus, School of Medical Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia Ms. Isabel Guasch Peyron, AU16 Alumna, Ecole des Hautes Etudes en

“The Role of Youth in Public Health promotion: New ideas, Young ideas”

	Sciences Sociales
15:30 – 16:00	Break
16:00 – 18:00	Sharing experience and lessons learnt: Initiatives from Asia and Europe <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- What are the public health issues that are most concerned to the youth from Asia and Europe?</li> <li>- What initiatives from Asia and Europe to support youth movement in public health have been made? Which of these initiatives have been successful</li> <li>- What good practices can be derived from these initiatives? What have been the main ingredients that have made them successful? What were the challenges encountered and how were these overcome? How can youth organisations, civil society in general, and government institutions learn from these?</li> <li>- What can be done to enhance engagement by both government and non-government actors in the promotion of public health for the youth?</li> </ul> Guided Discussion Among Participants

Day 2 – Sunday 3 October

TIME	AGENDA
09:00 – 10:30	Enhancing synergies within and between Asia and Europe <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- How have civil societies and youth networks in Asia and Europe been engaged in the promotion of Public Health? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ What are the achievements?</li> <li>✓ What are the lessons learnt from on-going projects?</li> </ul> </li> <li>- How can Youth movement be more empowered? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ What can be done to improve the youth organisations’ capacity in actively promoting public health among youth?</li> <li>✓ What can be done to improve the youth organisations’ capacity to successfully advocate for higher prominence of youth public health issues on the political agenda?</li> <li>✓ What would be required for the youth networks to form a stronger alliance?</li> <li>✓ With whom should the youth collaborate for further outreach?</li> <li>✓ How can government institutions support cooperative work among youth networks for the promotion of public health?</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Guided Discussion Among Participants
10:30 – 10:45	Break
10:45 – 12:15	Policy Recommendations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- What policy recommendations to ASEM leaders and societies can be made with respect to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ enhancing engagement of both government and non-government actors in the promotion of public health for the youth?</li> <li>✓ empowering the youth in public health promotion across Asia and Europe?</li> <li>✓ enhancing and ensuring a sustainable knowledge and experience sharing for the youth in Asia and Europe?</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Sub-Working Groups